Prompt: Write a two to three-page paper about a famous person who is (or was) important in your career field. For instance, if your career field is auto mechanics, you may want to research Henry Ford. Use this worksheet to find your source(s) for this assignment.

1. For help brainstorming topics, check out the LibGuide for this class: https://pct.libguides.com/c.php?g=134111&p=877977
2. The Biography in Context database is the perfect tool for finding biographies of people in your career field: https://pct.libguides.com/biography-in-context
   If you are off the campus network, you will be prompted for your network username and password before accessing this database. Your username is the part of your college email address that appears before the @ sign.
3. In the Biography in Context database click on the link “Browse People” and select an appropriate category from the “View All” dropdown menu.
4. If you already have someone in mind, just type their name in the search box and hit enter.
5. You are required to locate at least one source for your paper.
6. Use the database’s citation tool to create an APA 6th formatted citation. (Remember to change the dropdown selection to APA 6th.)

7. Copy and paste the citation into your APA References page.

8. If you do not find an image of your person in this database, try searching Google Images: https://images.google.com/
